PREFATORY STATEMENT

At present Barangay District 6, Ormoc City, has no set of Barangay Officials to handle the affairs of the said Barangay considering that nobody has manifested interest to run or file a Certificate of Candidacy during the 2007 Barangay Elections. The problem hampers the flow of Barangay development programs and the delivery of basic public services to the Barangay constituents;

The Sangguniang Panlungsod ng Ormoc, pursuant to Sec. 16 of the LGC of 1991 otherwise known as the General Welfare Clause, deems it appropriate to uphold its legislative powers and accord preferential attention to the matter. It is the thrust of the city government to accelerate economic development and upgrade the quality of life of the people through proper control and administration. Hence, addressing the problem of Barangay District 6 is a priority task for the city officials.

A thorough evaluation on the matter was made in coordination with various government offices directly involve on barangay matters. The study resulted to a consensus of creating merger between Barangay District 6 and Barangay District 5. The merging of the two barangays is subject to the provisions of Section 8, Division and Merger - of the LGC of 1991. It was believed that the merger will strengthen the affairs and economic activities of the place, thereby giving the residents therein opportunity and right to economic, social and political advancement.

Chapter 2, Section 6 of the Local Government Code of 1991 provides that "A Local Government Unit may be created, divided, merged, abolished, or its boundaries substantially altered either by law enacted by xxx xxx or by ordinance passed by the Sangguniang Panlalawigan or Sangguniang Panlungsod concerned in the case of a Barangay located within its territorial jurisdiction, subject to limitations and requirements prescribed in this code".
