EXPLANATORY NOTE

TUGOB is a Visayan word that means bountiful or abundant.

The TUGOB Festival is not akin to other festivities in any part of the regions in the Philippines considering that TUGOB is a festivity held to draw attention not only to Ormocanons but of other Cities and Municipalities throughout the country, that Ormoc has its own way of highlighting a commemoration of its Charter Day otherwise known as "ADLAW SA ORMOC".

The TUGOB Festival aims to showcase the twelve (12) products/resources identified to have contributed to the development of the City, namely: flower, steam, water, pineapple, sugarcane, root crops, fish, livestock, coconut, vegetables, rice and even sand and gravel. To translate these products, which are abundant in the City, into a festival, different business establishments, schools and colleges of the City were tapped to depict it. The highlights of the event are the Search for Ms. TUGOB FESTIVAL QUEEN, the TUGOB FESTIVAL STREET DANCING and the TUGOB FESTIVAL DANCE COMPETITION.

The TUGOB FESTIVAL has been celebrated for the past two (2) years' Charter Day Anniversary and has created the impression that Tugob Festival is identified with Ormoc City and Ormoc City with Tugob Festival.

It is the expectation of this august body that the enactment of this Ordinance will enhance and support the tourism goals of the City of Ormoc, after all, our Local Government Code of 1991, in its provisions of Basic Services and Facilities (Section 17 thereof) include "TOURISM AND CULTURE AND THE ARTS DEVELOPMENT" as part of the basic services that the City is mandated to perform.

WHEREFORE, foregoing premises considered, on motion of City Councilor Filomeno P. Maglasang, Chairman, Committee on Education, Culture and the Arts, severally seconded by City Councilors Sotero M. Pepito, Ruben R. Capahi, Lea Doris C. Villar and Corinne M. Corro; be it

RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, to enact:
