RESOLUTION NO. 16

2nd Indorsement of Councilor Felipe Adolfo, Chairman,
Committee on Schools, dated January 18, 1951 hereunder quoted
verbatim as follows:

2nd Indorsement
Office of the Chairman
Committee on Schools
Ormoc City, January 18, 1951

Respectfully returned to the Municipal Board, Ormoc City, recommending approval of the reversion of funds as contained in the attached basic communication of the City
Supervisor, dated January 6, 1951.

After conferring with the city supervisor on January 18, 1951, the following information re-the case had been obtained:

- (a) D-21-f- P970.00 - That this amount will be used to help cover up the expenses incurred in connection with the Ormoc City representation in Elem. Athletic Meets in Albura, Naval, Malitbog and Tacloban which aggregated to more than One Thousand Pesos. This was partly met through voluntary contributions.
- (b) D-21-g- P500.00 Aside the supplies and materials which the district offices will use, the city supervisor plans to utilize a part of this fund to administer a District Test during this school year, 1950-1951.
- (c) D-21-l- P80.00 and D-21-t P70.00 - These items have been found necessary and the amounts recommended for reversion are reasonable.

That all items which have been requested for reversion belong to the school funds and the items to which the reversion shall be made are school items which require urgent attention and consideration. Hence, the management of the District Supervisor in making adjustments to solve his immediate school problems with the use of the same funds under his jurisdiction and care, deserve to gain the Board's respect and approval.

(SGD.) FELIPE ADOLFO
Chairman, Committee on Schools
