"WHEREAS, this Body in its regular session held on July 11, 1958, passed Resolution No. 99, zonifying the public market buildings into different sections;

"WHEREAS, upon its implementation, several complaints have been received by this Board protesting on the zonification, alleging that the same is prejudicial to their business; and

"WHEREAS, this Board, considering the plight of the public market vendors, sees the necessity of suspending the implementation of the zonification plan so that the same could be studied further, and find ways and means most beneficial to the vendors;

"RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, to suspend the implementation of Resolution No. 99, current series, of this Board, until a better plan for the market zonification is discovered;
